President's Message: Evolution

Our Fall Focus means the seasons are changing—you will also notice some changes in our Board of Directors and Program Managers. With Margaret Thornberry stepping down as President at the end of the last fiscal year, it is an appropriate time to do some 'evolving' at the FCAC.

My immeasurable gratitude to Margaret Thornberry for her service as our past President. Under her stewardship, we not only embraced social media and electronic communication—things we take for granted today—we also developed a board that is representative of the Fremont community. We introduced new programs and let go those that had run their course.

I hope to continue the positive change that FCAC presidents have shepherded since the organization's inception.. The list of my predecessors is distinguished and many continue to be committed to the arts in Fremont through their contributions of time and money.

New faces to our board and program chairs are Paul Davis as Treasurer, Richard Lau for Flash Fiction event, and Rajeev Shankar as co-chair of the Juried Photography Exhibit. Many of you know Paul, or have benefitted from his efforts in local arts. He has been active with local theater (StageOne), plays viola and/or violin in the pit orchestra from time to time with StarStruck Theater and in his 'free time', enjoys archeology, astronomy, and writing with the Fremont Writers' Guild.

Richard Lau, and Rajeev Shankar are both 'serial past winners' in our annual Flash Fiction event and Juried Photography Exhibit, respectively.

Highlights in this issue - Oct 19th: Flash Fiction Contest, produced in coordination with Half Price Books. December: Las Posadas holiday music event, produced in conjunction with the Old Mission San Jose.

Keep tabs on our doings with the FOCUS – either in paper or ONLINE and at our website. Let me know what you like & what you want to see more of: info@fremontculturalartscouncil.org / Subject: Feedback. Let's keep the evolution going!
